Straw Long Enough.

WOULD AMEND CONSTITUTION

President suggests term of six or eight years and then ineligible for re-election, declaring controversies like the one between him and Colonel Roosevelt would then be impossible.

Boston, April 30.—President Taft ended a twelve-hour campaign through Eastern Massachusetts in Boston. From the time he began his speech-making at Attleboro with a talk on the tariff until he made his last address at Melrose and asked for "a square deal," the president spurred his husky voice into strenuous action. It was one of the hardest campaign days Mr. Taft has spent since he entered the White House, but members of his party were confident that his second invasion of the Bay state will bring votes for him to the polls.

Mr. Taft's last long address was made at Lowell to an audience that packed the opera house. So eager was the crowd to gain admittance that several members of the president's own party could not get in until long after he started to speak.

When he came to talk about Mr. Roosevelt's charges some one in the gallery shouted: "He's a liar."

"No, that word isn't in my vocabulary," said the president.

Opposes Short and Ugly Word.

"My experience on the bench has taught me the value of words. One of the most unsafe things to do is to go further than to show the facts. I appreciate the support of my distinguished and enthusiastic friend, but I must decline to adopt his vocabulary."

After declaring that he was sorry it was necessary for him to have to mingle in a political struggle he suggested an amendment of the Constitution so that a president should serve six or eight years and be ineligible for re-election.

"I think that would prevent this," he said.

"No man has the right to misrepresent another to get himself in office, no matter how humble that man is," the president shouted at one point in his Lowell address.

"Condemn me if you will," he said in conclusion, "but condemn me by other witnesses than Theodore Roosevelt."

"I was a man of straw; but I have been a man of straw long enough; every man who has blood in his body and who has been misrepresented as I have been is forced to fight. I appeal to my friends in Massachusetts, who I think, believe in a square deal."

In the first half dozen speeches the president did not mention Colonel Roosevelt by name, although he followed closely over the path his predecessor made through the state.

President Assails Colonel.

As he came nearer and nearer to the colonel's footsteps the president warmed up to his subject and assailed the colonel time after time. He was not as bitter as in his Springfield and Boston addresses last week, but continued to tell the crowds what he thought of some of his opponent's charges.

Without going into much detail the president declared that he was for government "of, for and by the people," explained what he thought of the charge that he alone used political bosses and asked again and again if he had been given a square deal by Mr. Roosevelt.

The crowds were large and they cheered enough to warm the hearts of the Taft managers about his train. At Lawrence, Haverhill, Lowell and Melrose the president spoke in the rain.

Practically every town the president visited is a manufacturing center and in many places the mills were closed, the schools had declared partial holidays and every preparation had been made to welcome the nation's chief.

Interruptions were frequent, especially when Mr. Taft asked if he had been given a square deal.

"No, no," yelled some one in almost every audience.

STRIKES OUT CREED PARODY

Senator Williams Finds His Irreverence Aroused Criticism.

Washington, April 30.—Because of criticism of his recitation in the senate of a political parody on the "apostles' creed" last Thursday Senator Williams of Mississippi ordered that the parody be struck out of his speech in the permanent copies of the Congressional Record.

Senator Williams expressed astonishment at what he said he regarded as a misconception by many Christian people.

TAFT AND ROOSEVELT
ARE BOTH CONFIDENT

Look Forward to Victory in Massachusetts.

Boston, April 30.—With the departure of President Taft and Colonel Theodore Roosevelt from the state the campaign leaders gave their attention to figuring up the net results of the speaking tours. Both sides were confident that the final visits of the candidates meant more votes in the primaries and neither side was willing to admit the possibility of anything but victory in the statewide primaries.

General Edgar R. Champlin, head of the Taft league, has repeatedly estimated that thirty-four of the thirty-six Massachusetts delegates, at least, will go to Chicago prepared to vote for the renomination of President Taft and saw no reason to alter his predictions unless it might be to increase the number.

City Councilor Hale, the Roosevelt leader, said:

"The Massachusetts Roosevelt committee, to a man, is confident that Colonel Roosevelt will carry Massachusetts by a substantial plurality."

By most leaders it is admitted there is some undercurrent of feeling in favor of La Follette.

TO REGULATE WAGE CUTTING

Lenroot Would Make Commerce Commission Arbitration Board.

Washington, April 30.—A means of regulating the wages of railway operatives and a possible method of preventing disastrous strikes by the employment of the interstate commerce commission is proposed by Representative Lenroot of Wisconsin in a bill presented in the house.

The Lenroot bill provides that any one class of employees of a common carrier shall have the right to appeal to the commission against any general wage reduction.

The bill was referred to the committee on interstate and foreign commerce.

FEUDIST KILLS HIS ENEMY

Texas Man, Who Left Guns at Home Is Slain.

Sweetwater, Tex., April 30.—Bill Echols "got" his old enemy, Clayton Black. Black was shot and killed in the street at Coahoma, where two years ago members of the two warring families shot at each other for hours.

Three times Black was placed on trial, accused of trying to murder the leader of the opposing clan, Bill Echols. Each time he was acquitted.

Black and Echols met on the street at Coahoma. It is declared Black carelessly had left his weapons at home.

Colorado Is for Clark.

Colorado Springs, Colo., April 30.—The Colorado state Democratic convention adopted a resolution instructing Colorado's delegation to the national convention to support Champ Clark until such time as he no longer was a candidate or until released by him. An effort to have Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey named as second choice was defeated on roll call, 676 to 372.

CAMPAIGN OF DENUNCIATION

"Abuse the Other Fellow" Is Rival Managers' Slogan.

PEOPLE WILL NOT BE FOOLED

They Know That All the Prominent Men in the Race For President Can Not Possibly Be All That Is Said of Them—Representative Sulzer's Elegant Description of Alaska.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, April 30.—[Special.]—If the American people were easily fooled the two political parties would have any quantity of campaign material to use against the candidates nominated. The rival managers and partisans of the different candidates are stacking up any amount of denunciation and bad records against men in their own party which the opposition will no doubt use when the real campaign opens.

For instance, what the Taft men say of Roosevelt proves conclusively that he is unfit to be president. As to Taft, the Roosevelt men have shown how utterly unworthy he is of support by Republicans.

Going into the Democratic camp we find that Governor Harmon, Governor Wilson and Champ Clark have been shown to be without principle or intelligence by their rival campaign bureaus.

Would Be Strange if True.

It would be very strange if true that all the prominent men in the race for president are all that the campaign managers of the opposition claim them to be. It would be strange if the people of the United States had so little sense that they were narrowed down to the selection of such unworthy men as the principal candidates are said to be by the men in their own party. As all of them have been advanced to high station, it would seem that they have been able to fool the people in the most amazing manner.

But the fact is the campaign managers are trying to fool the people, and they are not succeeding. While everything else has advanced in science, literature, invention and progress, the management of a political campaign remains unchanged. Abuse of the other fellow is the prevailing idea of the average campaign manager. And it amounts to nothing.

Uncle Joe Seeking Information.

The house was considering a resolution allowing two young men of Salvador to enter the West Point Military academy.

"Is this the republic of San Salvador or an insular possession?" asked former Speaker Cannon.

Mr. Hay, in charge of the measure, tried to explain that Salvador had been a republic "off and on" in Central America. Uncle Joe kept insisting that San Salvador was an island and an English possession.

"I am not getting very much geographical information," remarked Cannon after a number of men had told what they did and what they did not know.

"You have learned that it is an independent government in Central America," said Hay as he grinned across the aisle.

Alaska and Poetry.

I suppose almost any kind of country will inspire men to poetic flights, but it never seemed to me that Alaska was especially a country of poetry, yet when Congressman Wedemeyer of Michigan spoke about Alaska he quoted much poetry in regard to that far away and supposedly cold region. But the house did not get the real thing until Congressman Sulzer broke forth.

Listen to this as an opening: Most of the people of this country have no idea of the vastness of her borders, the extent of her domain, the grandeur of her scenery, the greatness of her mountains, the length of her rivers, the limitless possibilities of her fisheries, her furs, her grazing advantages for sheep and cattle, her splendid agricultural resources, her incalculable mineral wealth and her homes for the multitude in the land up there that spells opportunity for the earnest worker and the brave pioneer."

Graham Was Foxy.

Congressman McKenzie was trying to get Congressman Graham to discuss some feature of a case under consideration in the house. "I have known my colleague a great many years," replied Graham, "and I will not shock the house by disclosing our ages by telling I have heard him edify the Illinois senate, where we both served. I know him to be a very shrewd lawyer, but I want to inform him that he is not shrewd enough to draw a red herring across the trail and get me to follow it."

Employers' Liability.

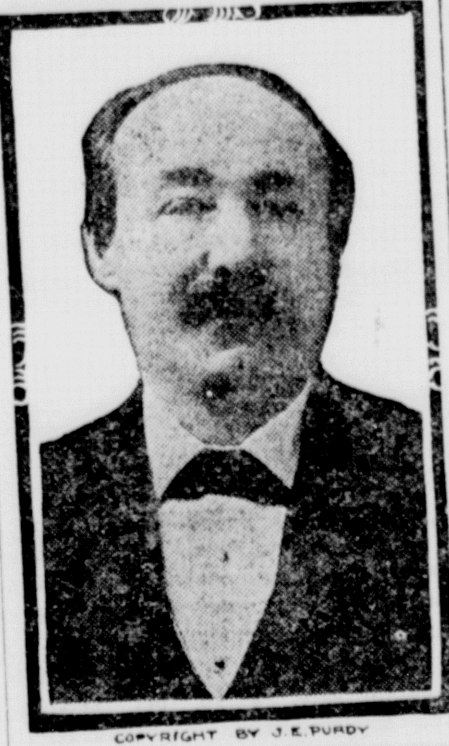

Those who favor the initiative and referendum should remember that it is a rather difficult matter to prepare and pass satisfactory legislation. Take the employers' liability bill, upon which a number of senators spent many months during the recess of congress. That measure is far from satisfactory as well as strong support among labor organizations. It is mighty hard to suit the people in these matters.

CHARLES J. BONAPARTE.

in Harvester Controversy.

SIDES WITH THE PRESIDENT

Bonaparte Thinks Him Right in Harvester Controversy.

Baltimore, April 30.—Charles J. Bonaparte, attorney general in President Roosevelt's cabinet, in a speech before the Young Men's Roosevelt league here, declared that Colonel Roosevelt is right in the connection with President Taft regarding the case of the International Harvester company.

Mr. Bonaparte asserted that the Roosevelt cabinet took up for discussion the harvester case after Mr. Taft had returned from the Philippines—or in January or February, 1908—and that while he could not swear to it it was his best belief that Taft took part in the conference between Roosevelt and the cabinet.

The letters in the case, Mr. Bonaparte said, were not written at the time the case was considered by the cabinet.

SEEKS DISSOLUTION
OF HARVESTER TRUST

Government Will Press Case
Against Concern.

Washington, April 30.—In the suit for the dissolution of the International Harvester company, under the authority of the Sherman anti-trust law, to be filed in the federal court in St. Paul by direction of President Taft, in the absence of Mr. Hout, United States attorney for the district of Minnesota, the government will be represented in court by Mr. Dickey, the assistant district attorney.

It is the purpose of the government to push the case against the harvester trust as rapidly as possible. The conduct of the proceedings will be discussed here at a conference to be held by Attorney General Wickham and United States Attorney Hout.

Mr. Hout arrived here from Minnesota. Saturday the bill and all accompanying papers were forwarded to Assistant United States Attorney Dickey. At the conference in this city every attorney general will go over every phase of the matter with Mr. Hout, who will have charge of the prosecution.

The government will allege that the Harvester company is a monopoly in restraint of trade and its dissolution will be sought on that ground.

HIGHEST IN THIRTY YEARS

Soup Cuts Selling for 15 Cents a Pound in New York.

New York, April 30.—The wholesale price of beef advanced here a cent a pound, to a higher record than any year since 1881. Native corn fed beef was quoted in Brooklyn at a top figure of 13 cents, which oldtimers agreed was the highest price in more than thirty years.

Retailers were charging 25 to 26 cents a pound for porterhouse and 24 cents for sirloin steak; 20 to 22 cents for rib roast; 30 to 32 cents for loin for lamb chops; 18 cents for mutton shoulder chops; 26 to 28 cents for mutton loin chops and even soup meat sold at 15 cents a pound.

Former Pure Food Expert Gives Positive Reasons.

Washington, April 30.—"Yes, I said it. Why shouldn't I have said it? Would I not have been an ingrate from my toes up to my head—from my head to my toes—if I had not said it?"

Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, the great pure food champion, until recently chief chemist of the department of agriculture, reiterated his hope that President Taft would be re-elected. He reiterated when shown a copy of a statement which he had been represented as making in Cincinnati a few days ago. That statement ran as follows:

"President Taft is the one man who stood between me and destruction at Washington. When efforts were being made to assassinate me Taft proved my only protector. He stood by me and I am grateful to him. I hope he will be re-elected."

RIOTING ON AT ZION CITY

Men and Women Beaten With Clubs and Blackjacks.

Zion City, Ill., April 30.—Rioting, which may result seriously, started here when employees of independent manufacturing concerns attacked a group of 200 Zion men and women at a prayer meeting. Both men and women were beaten with clubs and blackjacks and a number were seriously injured.

Immediately after the fight at the prayer meeting Wilbur Glen Voliva ordered the large alarm bell rung and more than 1,000 men, members of the church, gathered at the auditorium to discuss plans for resisting further attacks by employees of independent companies, who filled the streets and threatened to "clean out the town."

Senate Adopts Culberson Resolution Calling for Contributors' Names.

Washington, April 30.—The senate adopted the Culberson resolution calling for a full report on the contributions made to the national committee of all parties in the presidential and congressional campaigns of 1904 and 1908.

The inquiry is entrusted to the committee on privileges and elections, which is instructed to supply the senate with full information as to amount as well as to give the names of the contributors.

Musicians End Life a Few Days After Slaying Wife.

New York, April 30.—Albert de Brahms, a restaurant orchestra leader, after killing his wife more than two days ago and apparently preparing to dismember the body and ship it away, committed suicide in his apartment.

"I don't want to die in the electric chair, so I take my own life," he wrote in a note confessing his crime.

The body of his wife was found in a bathtub packed in sawdust and plaster of paris.

Reason for Socialistic Trend.

Baltimore, April 30.—Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey, in an address at Towson, near here, said that the country was turning slowly to socialism because the voters have despaired of getting what they want from either Republicans or Democrats.

He said he was not doubtful, however, that the Democratic party, with its present influences, is the party to give the nation progress.

San Juan, P. R., April 30.—The territorial Republican convention has elected Mateo Fajardo and S. Behn delegates to the Chicago convention. They have been instructed for President Taft.

Strike Apparently Fails.

Milwaukee, April 30.—A strike of motormen and conductors against the Milwaukee Electric Railway and Light company turned out to be pretty much of a fizzle. While union officers claim 300 out of 1,300 men left the street cars the company officials say only about 150 struck.

It was one of the hardest campaign days Mr. Taft has spent since he entered the White House, but members of his party were confident that his second invasion of the Bay state will bring votes for him to the polls.

Mr. Taft's last long address was made at Lowell to an audience that packed the opera house. So eager was the crowd to gain admittance that several members of the president's own party could not get in until long after he started to speak.

When he came to talk about Mr. Roosevelt's charges some one in the gallery shouted: "He's a liar."

"No, that word isn't in my vocabulary," said the president.

Opposes Short and Ugly Word.

"My experience on the bench has taught me the value of words. One of the most unsafe things to do is to go further than to show the facts. I appreciate the support of my distinguished and enthusiastic friend, but I must decline to adopt his vocabulary."

After declaring that he was sorry it was necessary for him to have to mingle in a political struggle he suggested an amendment of the Constitution so that a president should serve six or eight years and be ineligible for re-election.

"I think that would prevent this," he said.

"No man has the right to misrepresent another to get himself in office, no matter how humble that man is," the president shouted at one point in his Lowell address.

"Condemn me if you will," he said in conclusion, "but condemn me by other witnesses than Theodore Roosevelt."

"I was a man of straw; but I have been a man of straw long enough; every man who has blood in his body and who has been misrepresented as I have been is forced to fight. I appeal to my friends in Massachusetts, who, I think, believe in a square deal."

In the first half dozen speeches the president did not mention Colonel Roosevelt by name, although he followed closely over the path his predecessor made through the state.

President Assails Colonel.

As he came nearer and nearer to the colonel's footsteps the president warmed up to his subject and assailed the colonel time after time. He was not as bitter as in his Springfield and Boston addresses last week, but continued to tell the crowds what he thought of some of his opponent's charges.

Without going into much detail the president declared that he was for government "of, for and by the people," explained what he thought of the charge that he alone used political bosses and asked again and again if he had been given a square deal by Mr. Roosevelt.

The crowds were large and they cheered enough to warm the hearts of the Taft managers aboard his train. At Lawrence, Haverhill, Lowell and Melrose the president spoke in the rain.

Practically every town the president visited is a manufacturing center and in many places the mills were closed, the schools had declared partial holidays and every preparation had been made to welcome the nation's chief.

Interruptions were frequent, especially when Mr. Taft asked if he had been given a square deal.

"No, no," yelled some one in almost every audience.

Big Fire in Canadian Town.

Winnipeg, April 30.—One side of the main business street of Treherne, Man., was destroyed by fire. The fire still is in progress. Only a bucket brigade is available to fight the flames. The loss is estimated at $100,000, principally to retail stores.

STRIKES OUT CREED PARODY

Senator Williams Finds His Irreverence Aroused Criticism.

Washington, April 30.—Because of criticism of his recitation in the senate of a political parody on the "apostles' creed" last Thursday Senator Williams of Mississippi ordered that the parody be struck out of his speech in the permanent copies of the Congressional Record.

Senator Williams expressed astonishment at what he said he regarded as a misconception by many Christian people.

TAFT AND ROOSEVELT
ARE BOTH CONFIDENT

Look Forward to Victory in Massachusetts.

Boston, April 30.—With the departure of President Taft and Colonel Theodore Roosevelt from the state the campaign leaders gave their attention to figuring up the net results of the speaking tours. Both sides were confident that the final visits of the candidates meant more votes in the primaries and neither side was willing to admit the possibility of anything but victory in the statewide primaries.

General Edgar R. Champlin, head of the Taft league, has repeatedly estimated that thirty-four of the thirty-six Massachusetts delegates, at least, will go to Chicago prepared to vote for the renomination of President Taft and saw no reason to alter his predictions unless it might be to increase the number.

City Councillor Hale, the Roosevelt leader, said:

"The Massachusetts Roosevelt committee, to a man, is confident that Colonel Roosevelt will carry Massachusetts by a substantial plurality."

By most leaders it is admitted there is some undercurrent of feeling in favor of La Follette.

TO REGULATE WAGE CUTTING

Lenroot Would Make Commerce Commission Arbitration Board.

Washington, April 30.—A means of regulating the wages of railway operatives and a possible method of preventing disastrous strikes by the employment of the interstate commerce commission is proposed by Representative Lenroot of Wisconsin in a bill presented in the house.

The Lenroot bill provides that any one class of employees of a common carrier shall have the right to appeal to the commission against any general wage reduction.

The bill was referred to the committee on interstate and foreign commerce.

FEUDIST KILLS HIS ENEMY

Texas Man, Who Left Guns at Home Is Slain.

Sweetwater, Tex., April 30.—Bill Echols "got" his old enemy, Clayton Black. Black was shot and killed in the street at Coahoma, where two years ago members of the two warring families shot at each other for hours.

Three times Black was placed on trial, accused of trying to murder the leader of the opposing clan, Bill Echols. Each time he was acquitted.

Black and Echols met on the street at Coahoma. It is declared Black carelessly had left his weapons at home.

Colorado Is for Clark.

Colorado Springs, Colo., April 30.—The Colorado state Democratic convention adopted a resolution instructing Colorado's delegation to the national convention to support Champ Clark until such time as he no longer was a candidate or until released by him.

An effort to have Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey named as second choice was defeated on roll call, 676 to 372.

PEOPLE WILL NOT BE FOOLED

They Know That All the Prominent Men in the Race For President Can Not Possibly Be All That Is Said of Them—Representative Sulzer's Elegant Description of Alaska.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, April 30.—[Special.]—If the American people were easily fooled the two political parties would have any quantity of campaign material to use against the candidates nominated. The rival managers and partisans of the different candidates are stacking up any amount of denunciation and bad records against men in their own party which the opposition will no doubt use when the real campaign opens.

For instance, what the Taft men say of Roosevelt proves conclusively that he is unfit to be president. As to Taft, the Roosevelt men have shown how utterly unworthy he is of support by Republicans.

Going into the Democratic camp we find that Governor Harmon, Governor Wilson and Champ Clark have been shown to be without principle or intelligence by their rival campaign bureaus.

Would Be Strange if True.

It would be very strange if true that all the prominent men in the race for president are all that the campaign managers of the opposition claim them to be. It would be strange if the people of the United States had so little sense that they were narrowed down to the selection of such unworthy men as the principal candidates are said to be by the men in their own party. As all of them have been advanced to high station, it would seem that they have been able to fool the people in the most amazing manner.

But the fact is the campaign managers are trying to fool the people, and they are not succeeding. While everything else has advanced in science, literature, invention and progress, the management of a political campaign remains unchanged. Abuse of the other fellow is the prevailing idea of the average campaign manager. And it amounts to nothing.

Uncle Joe Seeking Information.

The house was considering a resolution allowing two young men of Salvador to enter the West Point Military academy.

"Is this the republic of San Salvador or an insular possession?" asked former Speaker Cannon.

Mr. Hay, in charge of the measure, tried to explain that Salvador had been a republic "off and on" in Central America. Uncle Joe kept insisting that San Salvador was an island and an English possession.

"I am not getting very much geographical information," remarked Cannon after a number of men had told what they did and what they did not know.

"You have learned that it is an independent government in Central America," said Hay as he grinned across the aisle.

Alaska and Poetry.

I suppose almost any kind of country will inspire men to poetic flights, but it never seemed to me that Alaska was especially a country of poetry, yet when Congressman Wedemeyer of Michigan spoke about Alaska he quoted much poetry in regard to that far away and supposedly cold region. But the house did not get the real thing until Congressman Sulzer broke forth. Listen to this as an opening surge:

"Alaska is a wonderland. Most of the people of this country have no idea of the vastness of her borders, the extent of her domain, the grandeur of her scenery, the salubrity of her climate, the greatness of her mountains, the length of her rivers, the limitless possibilities of her fisheries, her forests, her grazing advantages for sheep and cattle, her splendid agricultural resources, her incalculable mineral wealth and her homes for the multitude in the land up there that spells opportunity for the earnest worker and the brave pioneer."

Graham Was Foxy.

Congressman McKenzie was trying to get Congressman Graham to discuss some feature of a case under consideration in the house. "I have known my colleague a great many years," replied Graham, "and I will not shock the house by disclosing our ages by telling I have heard him electrify the Illinois senate, where we both served. I know him to be a very shrewd lawyer, but I want to inform him that he is not shrewd enough to draw a red herring across the trail and get me to follow it."

Employers' Liability.

Those who favor the initiative and referendum should remember that it is a rather difficult matter to prepare and pass satisfactory legislation. Take the employers' liability bill, upon which a number of senators spent many months during the recess of congress. That measure is far from satisfactory and has aroused strong opposition as well as strong support among labor organizations. It is mighty hard to suit the people in these matters.

SIDES WITH THE PRESIDENT

Bonaparte Thinks Him Right in Harvester Controversy.

Baltimore, April 30.—Charles J. Bonaparte, attorney general in President Roosevelt's cabinet, in a speech before the Young Men's Roosevelt league here, declared that Colonel Roosevelt is right in the connection with President Taft regarding the case of the International Harvester company.

Mr. Bonaparte asserted that the Roosevelt cabinet took up for discussion the harvester case after Mr. Taft had returned from the Philippines—or in January or February, 1908—and that while he could not swear to it it was his best belief that Taft took part in the conference between Roosevelt and the cabinet.

The letters in the case, Mr. Bonaparte said, were not written at the time the case was considered by the cabinet.

SEEKS DISSOLUTION
OF HARVESTER TRUSTGovernment Will Press Case
Against Concern.

Washington, April 30.—In the suit for the dissolution of the International Harvester company, under the authority of the Sherman anti-trust law, to be filed in the federal court in St. Paul by direction of President Taft, in the absence of Mr. Houghton, United States attorney for the district of Minnesota, the government will be represented in court by Mr. Dickey, the assistant district attorney.

It is the purpose of the government to push the case against the harvester trust as rapidly as possible. The conduct of the proceedings will be discussed here at a conference to be held by Attorney General Wickersham and United States Attorney Houghton.

Mr. Houghton arrived here from Minnesota. Saturday the bill and all accompanying papers were forwarded to Assistant United States Attorney Dickey. At the conference in this city the attorney general will go over every phase of the matter with Mr. Houghton, who will have charge of the prosecution.

The government will allege that the Harvester company is a monopoly in restraint of trade and its dissolution will be sought on that ground.

HIGHEST IN THIRTY YEARS

Soup Cuts Selling for 15 Cents a Pound in New York.

New York, April 30.—The wholesale price of beef advanced here a cent a pound, to a higher record than any year since 1881. Native corn fed beef was quoted in Brooklyn at a top figure of 13 cents, which oldtimers agreed was the highest price in more than thirty years.

Retailers were charging 25 to 26 cents a pound for porterhouse and 24 cents for sirloin steak; 20 to 22 cents for rib roast; 30 to 32 cents for loin lamb chops; 18 cents for mutton lamb chops; 26 to 28 cents for mutton loin chops and even soup meat sold at 15 cents a pound.

WILEY SUPPORTING TAFT

Former Pure Food Expert Gives Positive Reasons.

Washington, April 30.—"Yes, I said it. Why shouldn't I have said it? Would I not have been an ingrate from my toes up to my head—from my head to my toes—if I had not said it?"

Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, the great pure food champion, until recently chief chemist of the department of agriculture, reiterated his hope that President Taft would be re-elected. He reiterated when shown a copy of a statement which he had been represented as making in Cincinnati a few days ago. That statement ran as follows:

"President Taft is the one man who stood between me and destruction at Washington. When efforts were being made to assassinate me Taft proved my only protector. He stood by me and I am grateful to him. I hope he will be re-elected."

RIOTING ON AT ZION CITY

Men and Women Beaten With Clubs and Blackjacks.

Zion City, Ill., April 30.—Rioting, which may result seriously, started here when employees of independent manufacturing concerns attacked a group of 200 Zion men and women at a prayer meeting. Both men and women were beaten with clubs and blackjacks and a number were seriously injured.

Immediately after the fight at the prayer meeting Wilbur Glen Voliva ordered the large alarm bell rung and more than 1,000 men, members of the church, gathered at the auditorium to discuss plans for resisting further attacks by employees of independent companies, who filled the streets and threatened to "clean out the town."

Washington, April 30.—The senate adopted the Culberson resolution calling for a full report on the contributions made to the national committee of all parties in the presidential and congressional campaigns of 1904 and 1908.

The inquiry is entrusted to the committee on privileges and elections, which is instructed to supply the senate with full information as to amount as well as to give the names of the contributors.

CHEATS THE DEATH CHAIR

Musician Ends Life a Few Days After Slaying Wife.

New York, April 30.—Albert de Brahms, a restaurant orchestra leader, after killing his wife more than two days ago and apparently preparing to dismember the body and ship it away, committed suicide in his apartments.

"I don't want to die in the electric chair, so I take my own life," he wrote in a note confessing his crime.

The body of his wife was found in a bathtub packed in sawdust and plaster of paris.

Reason for Socialistic Trend.

Baltimore, April 30.—Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey, in an address at Towson, near here, said that the country was turning slowly to socialism because the voters have despaired of getting what they want from either Republicans or Democrats. He said he was not doubtful, however, that the Democratic party, with its present influences, is the party to give the nation progress.

Roosevelt Says a Vote for Taft
Is a Vote for Bosses.

ATTACKS SPECIAL INTERESTS

In Closing His Massachusetts Campaign the Former President Receives Reports of Taft's Addresses in Same State and Makes Vigorous Reply. Says He Can Win Without the Bay State.

Pittsfield, Mass., April 30.—"If you vote for Mr. Taft you vote for these men," said Colonel Roosevelt here, after referring to Senators Lorimer, Penrose, Gallinger and Guggenheim. He declared that the president had practically nothing in his campaign back of him, outside of two or three states, except the support he received from those men "and their like" and from the great sinister special interests which stand behind these bosses. Colonel Roosevelt devoted a large part of his speech to a reply to the things President Taft had been saying during the day at the other end of the state. At intervals on his journey across the state the colonel received telegraphic reports of the president's speeches and in the latter part of the day entered upon a long distance debate by retorting to Mr. Taft's statements.

Colonel Roosevelt said the president had asserted he was stirring up class hatred. This Colonel Roosevelt denied.

Denies Stirring Class Hatred.

"The talk that I am stirring up class hatred is arrant nonsense," he declared.

Colonel Roosevelt made it clear that he did not believe the result of his campaign hinged upon the outcome of the primaries.

"Mind you," he said, "I believe we can win this fight without Massachusetts. But I do not want Massachusetts to lag behind. I want it to be in the lead in the fight."

With his address in Pittsfield Colonel Roosevelt wound up his campaign in Massachusetts.

He made twenty speeches, going from Boston through towns along the north shore to Lawrence and Lowell and then across the northern part of the state to the Berkshire hills.

He encountered a snow storm in the hills of Northern Massachusetts and a downpour of rain later, but was greeted by large crowds at the principal points.

Refers to Columbus Speech.

"Mr. Taft in his speech has announced that I am trying to stir up class hatred and excite discontent. I ask you to look for yourselves at my speech last Saturday night in Boston, the longest speech I made in Massachusetts, and the speech in which I developed in detail certain of the ideas of my Columbus speech for which I have been most criticised."

"I ask you to see if you can find anywhere in that speech any appeal to class hatred, except hatred of the class of crooks, political and financial alike. I ask you to hunt through that speech and see whether you can find any stirring up of discontent in it excepting of discontent with trickery, with political dependency, with cheating, with oppression."

"I have, it is true, preached abhorrence of Mr. Lorimer and all that for which Mr. Lorimer stands and of the kind of crooked politics and crooked finance, which in combination are responsible for the reproduction of Mr. Lorimer. But as regards most even of the bosses whom I oppose I have not preached hatred of them. I do not hate them; I merely wish them to retire to private life and quit misgoverning us. If they will stop governing us against our will the way we don't want to be governed I will very gladly stop saying anything about them whatever."

TITANIC FUND IS $1,500,000

Subscription Will Continue as a Large Number Is Needed.

London, April 30.—The Titanic funds, including those collected in the United States, now aggregate well over $1,500,000. The suggestion has been made that sufficient money has been subscribed, but the mayor of Southampton points out that a large number of people are needy at that place and he wants the collections to continue. Affecting scenes were witnessed at Southampton on the arrival of the stewards and stewardesses who escaped in the disaster.

MAY LIFT BAN ON DANCING

Methodists May Also Cease to Frown on Card Playing.

Chicago, April 30.—There is a possibility that the ban against dancing, card playing and theater going may be lifted from the Methodist discipline at the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church to be held in Minneapolis. The Chicago Methodist Ministers' association, after a sharp discussion, adopted a memorial to the conference leaving under the ban only the use or the promotion of the sale of intoxicating liquors.

$100 REWARD, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work.
The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimo-

Origin of the Banjo.

In the early part of the nineteenth century in the town of Banjoemas, on the island of Java, a negro native determined to construct a musical instrument for his own use. Taking a cheese box and heading it with a goatskin, he ran a handle through it, and, adapting violin strings tuned to the first, third, fifth and eighth notes of an octave, he christened it a banjo, from the first two syllables of his native town. Gradual improvements on this rough and ready instrument were made, and about the middle of the century it crossed the Atlantic and, though unpopular in London at first, soon became well liked.—
London Chronicle.

WOOLWORTH STORE OPENING MAY 3rd.

New Five and Ten Cent Store Open for Inspection on Friday Afternoon and Evening

OPEN FOR BUSINESS MAY 4TH

Store at 618 Front Street Has Been Converted Into a Beautiful Establishment

The F. W. Woolworth Co., operating nearly 600 stores throughout the United States, will open its Brainerd store, 618 Front street, Friday, May 3rd, for inspection only, from 2 to 5 P. M. and from 7 to 9 P. M. Music will be furnished by Graham's orchestra. Promptly at eight o'clock Saturday morning, May 4th, the store will be open for business.

As a result of the very large purchasing power enjoyed by the Woolworth company in operating this big chain of over 600 stores throughout the country, tremendous values are offered at five and ten cents. Nothing in the store is over ten cents in price.

Mr. Woolworth, the originator of the five and ten cent business, began his successful business career in Lancaster, Pennsylvania. Today a handsome white stone building marks the spot in Lancaster where he made his first success and was erected by himself.

The Woolworth Co. are highly pleased with the prospects in Brainerd and expect to give the Brainerd people the very best service possible. The local management will be under the direction of Mr. H. V. Heikes who has been in the business in the company's stores in St. Joseph, Mo.; Springfield, Ill.; and Minneapolis, Minn. Assisting Mr. Heikes in the opening of the store are Mr. Hohoff, of Grand Forks; Mr. Stake, of St. Cloud; Mr. Stevens of Ashland and Mr. B. H. Strongman, of the Chicago office.

When Brainerd people and the visitors from the country and the range inspect the new five and ten cent store on Friday afternoon and evening, they will see a modern establishment, a duplicate of the many stores successfully managed by this company in other large cities of the United States. The furnishings and fixtures are of the very best and the front of the store is of a most distinctive design.

MACKAY BENNETT LANDS 190 BODIES

Special to Dispatch:

Halifax, N. S., April 30—One hundred and sixteen victims of the Titanic disaster, picked up by the steamer Mackay Bennett on its death cruise, were buried at sea. These bodies, the ship's crew said, were found to be in such condition as to preclude their being brought into port. One hundred and ninety bodies were on board the ship when she made port this morning.

EXAMINATION CONTINUES

Water and Light Board Investigation Consumed all Monday and Still Not Finished

Councilmen put in a strenuous day Monday listening to testimony taken in the examination of water and light board matters and although the attorneys for the petitioners said they would complete the presentation of their side of the case in one day, the end is still far in the dim distance.

On Monday morning M. T. Dunn was heard. In the afternoon W. E. Corkery a former member of the water and light board, testified to the effect that he felt out of place on the board, that he seemed to have no voice and that he would have to pay $30 for a library to post up on many matters.

Former mayor A. Ousdahl's testimony covered transformers, trips out of the city, flat rates on water and other matters.

A. D. Peterson testified about the sales of wood he had made to the board.

John Ernster testified regarding water rates. The taking of testimony will be resumed at 7:30 this evening, and the petitioners' attorneys who have probably six more witnesses, asserted they would surely finish tonight.

BUSH NEARLY SHUT THEM OUT

Leslie Bush Lets Butte Down With 5 Hits and Missoula Wins Game 6 to 1

"THE PHENOM FROM BRAINERD" Daily Missoulian Calls Bush the Minnesota Wonder, Praising His Work

"Boy Pitcher Shines in Fourth Game of the Series." "Leslie Bush Lets Butte Down With Five Hits and Missoula Wins 6 to 1." In these flaring headlines the Daily Missoulian chronicles the achievements of Leslie Bush when he pitched his first complete game as a professional.

"The fourth game," says the paper, "went to the Missoulians also. It was a pretty contest, marred by but one error, a wild heave on the part of McQuaid, shortstop for Butte. The final score was 6 to 1. On April 26, Missoula played perfectly behind Bush, the phenom of Brainerd, Minn."

"On his part, Bush pitched good ball, allowing but five hits. These five he kept widely apart, excepting in the second inning, when Conley's single and McQuaid's double were combined for a run."

"He was effective with men on bases and at no time was he affected by the fact that he was pitching his first complete game in professional company."

"The Minnesota wonder might have had a shoutout to his credit had Orlet, Missoula's shortstop, thrown to the plate in the visitor's second, instead of to first base. Conley bounced a single off Bush's glove. Ruegg attempted to sacrifice, but Bush, who fielded sensationally, pegged Conley out at second. McQuaid's two-sacker put Ruegg on third. Johnson hit to Orlet, the Missoula shortstop, who made a beautiful stop and threw to first. He might have nailed Ruegg by a heave to Roberts, the Missoula catcher, who was begging for the ball, but the shortstop was a bit out of position and picked the long throw. What do these swatters care for one run anyhow?"

"In the fourth inning the Missoulians took another run. Chongson's hit passed between Daddy's legs at an estimated speed of 150 miles an hour. Roberts fanned, Bush poked a Texas leaguer over second base. The rest of the innings were simply pretty baseball, with Bush and Jacks fighting it out."

Bush's record for the game: A. B. 4; R. 0; H. 1; P. O. 9; A. 5; E. 0. Bush struck out 6 and gave 2 bases on balls. He made one wild pitch. Time of game 1 hour, 50 minutes.

BARROWS NEWS

Construction of Town Hall to Commence—Barrows Social Club Dance May 11th

W. H. Lee has a large crew at work drilling for the Gold Iron Mining Co. of Superior, in the forty south of the M. A. Hanna Co. mine at Barrows.

The Quackenbush Mercantile Co., of Barrows, has sold five lots to outside people who will soon erect buildings in Barrows.

Andrew Ring has bought a lot in Barrows and will soon commence building his own house.

Bids will soon be opened for the construction of a town hall.

The Barrows Mine Social club will give another of its popular dances on Saturday evening, May 11.

P. Alfred Quackenbush and his father, John Quackenbush, were at Little Falls Saturday.

SIMPLE MIXTURE HELPS

That simple remedies are best has again been proven. Johnson's Pharmacy reports that many Brainerd people are receiving QUICK benefit from simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ika, the German appendicitis remedy. A SINGLE DOSE helps sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation INSTANTLY because this simple mixture antiseptizes the digestive organs and draws off the impurities.

PROCEEDS AGAINST INT. HARVESTER CO.

Special to Dispatch:

St. Paul, Minn., April 30—With the filing this morning of the government suit against the International Harvester Company in the federal district court here, the government began its long planned movement to smash the trust under the provision of the Sherman law. Twenty-five specially named defendants in the suit will be required to appear May 6. They will then have thirty days in which to enter pleas and demurrers.

A MODEL FARM

P. M. Zakariassen Farm of Southeast Brainerd Shown on Souvenir Postal Cards

The farm of former Alderman P. M. Zakariassen is shown on handsomely printed souvenir post cards. The farm is situated within the city limits in Southeast Brainerd and consists of an 80 acre tract, all cleared and cultivated and well fenced. This year Mr. Zakariassen will put in a large crop of corn, potatoes and vegetables.

The buildings on the farm are a six room dwelling, a cement block barn measuring 32 by 42 feet with a hip roof, and near by are a carriage shed, summer kitchen and other small buildings. Many cows are kept and cream finds a ready sale at the Echo dairy in Brainerd. Full blooded white Leghorn chickens thrive well in the poultry yard.

The farm is about two and one-half miles southeast of the postoffice and lies a half a mile southeast of where Judge G. W. Holland has done much drilling in the exploration of his iron lands. For that matter the entire region around the farm has been thoroughly drilled. Mr. Zakariassen's land at one time was under option, but the parties did not drill. Iron is believed to exist on it as it lies clearly within the mineral belt.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Miss Ethel Parker entertained a party of friends at "500" last evening at her home on Fourth street. Cards, singing and music were the diversions of the evening. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

The Bachelor Maids will give a dance Friday evening, May 3 at Elks hall. Special plans have been made to entertain the married people.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

French Vaudeville

"Alma, "Where Do You Live?" drew a fairly large house at the opera house and the comedy was a most amusing kind of French vaudeville. Miss Nannette Flack, as Alma, was of prepossessing appearance and her voice appealed to her audience. Chas. A. Murray, as Theobald, also immediately caught the popular fancy.

"Barriers Burned Away"

It is a peculiar coincidence that the first novel that was written by E. P. Roe should be the first one to be dramatized, yet such is the case, for "Barriers Burned Away" which blazed the way to fame for this novelist has been made into a play by the dramatist George Middleton. This play is said to be the best that Mr. Middleton has written, and will undoubtedly bring him as much renown as the novel did its author.

The story deals with the adventures of a poor but brilliant young man and his efforts to win the love of a rich and haughty young woman. The scenes are laid and enacted in Chicago just prior to and after the great fire. The novel has proven to be one of the most interesting and widely read during the last decade. The play is said to be just as entertaining to those who have never read Mr. Roe's book as it is to those who have.

"Barriers Burned Away" will be the offering at the Brainerd opera house Sunday, May 5th.

WOOLWORTH STORE OPENING MAY 3rd.

New Five and Ten Cent Store Open for Inspection on Friday Afternoon and Evening

OPEN FOR BUSINESS MAY 4TH

Store at 618 Front Street Has Been Converted Into a Beautiful Establishment

The F. W. Woolworth Co., operating nearly 600 stores throughout the United States, will open its Brainerd store, 618 Front street, Friday, May 3rd, for inspection only, from 2 to 5 P. M. and from 7 to 9 P. M. Music will be furnished by Graham's orchestra. Promptly at eight o'clock Saturday morning, May 4th, the store will be open for business.

As a result of the very large purchasing power enjoyed by the Woolworth company in operating this big chain of over 600 stores throughout the country, tremendous values are offered at five and ten cents. Nothing in the store is over ten cents in price.

Mr. Woolworth, the originator of the five and ten cent business, began his successful business career in Lancaster, Pennsylvania. Today a handsome white stone building marks the spot in Lancaster where he made his first success and was erected by himself.

The Woolworth Co. are highly pleased with the prospects in Brainerd and expect to give the Brainerd people the very best service possible. The local management will be under the direction of Mr. H. V. Helges who has been in the business in the company's stores in St. Joseph, Mo.; Springfield, Ill.; and Minneapolis, Minn. Assisting Mr. Helges in the opening of the store are Mr. Hohoff, of Grand Forks; Mr. Stake, of St. Cloud; Mr. Stevens of Ashland and Mr. B. H. Strongman, of the Chicago office.

When Brainerd people and the visitors from the country and the range inspect the new five and ten cent store on Friday afternoon and evening, they will see a modern establishment, a duplicate of the many stores successfully managed by this company in other large cities of the United States. The furnishings and fixtures are of the very best and the front of the store is of a most distinctive design.

MACKAY BENNETT LANDS 190 BODIES

Special to Dispatch:

Halifax, N. S., April 30—One hundred and sixteen victims of the Titanic disaster, picked up by the steamer Mackay Bennett on its death cruise, were buried at sea. These bodies, the ship's crew said, were found to be in such condition as to preclude their being brought into port. One hundred and ninety bodies were on board the ship when she made port this morning.

EXAMINATION CONTINUES

Water and Light Board Investigation Consumed all Monday and Still Not Finished

Connellmen put in a strenuous day Monday listening to testimony taken in the examination of water and light board matters and although the attorneys for the petitioners said they would complete the presentation of their side of the case in one day, the end is still far in the dim distance.

On Monday morning M. T. Dunn was heard. In the afternoon W. E. Corkery a former member of the water and light board, testified to the effect that he felt out of place on the board, that he seemed to have no voice and that he would have to pay $30 for a library to post up on many matters.

Former mayor A. Ousdahl's testimony covered transformers, trips out of the city, flat rates on water and other matters.

A. D. Peterson testified about the sales of wood he had made to the board.

John Ernster testified regarding water rates. The taking of testimony will be resumed at 7:30 this evening, and the petitioners' attorneys who have probably six more witnesses, asserted they would surely finish tonight.

BUSH NEARLY SHUT THEM OUT

Leslie Bush Lets Butte Down With 5 Hits and Missoula Wins Game 6 to 1

"THE PHENOM FROM BRAINERD" Daily Missoulian Calls Bush the Minnesota Wonder, Praising His Work

"Boy Pitcher Shines in Fourth Game of the Series," "Leslie Bush Lets Butte Down With Five Hits and Missoula Wins 6 to 1." In these flaring headlines the Daily Missoulian chronicles the achievements of Leslie Bush when he pitched his first complete game as a professional.

"The fourth game," says the paper, "went to the Missoulians also. It was a pretty contest, marred by but one error, a wild heave on the part of McQuaid, shortstop for Butte. The final score was 6 to 1. On April 26, Missoula played perfectly behind Bush, the phenom of Brainerd, Minn. "On his part, Bush pitched good ball, allowing but five hits. These five he kept widely apart, excepting in the second inning, when Conley's single and McQuaid's double were combined for a run.

"He was effective with men on bases and at no time was he affected by the fact that he was pitching his first complete game in professional company.

"The Minnesota wonder might have had a shoutout to his credit had Oriet, Missoula's shortstop, thrown to the plate in the visitor's second, instead of to first base. Conley bounced a single off Bush's glove. Ruegg attempted to sacrifice, but Bush, who fielded sensationally, pegged Conley out at second. McQuaid's two-sacker put Ruegg on third. Johnson hit to Oriet, the Missoula shortstop, who made a beautiful stop and threw to first. He might have nailed Ruegg by a heave to Roberts, the Missoula catcher, who was begging for the ball, but the shortstop was a bit out of position and picked the long throw. What do these swatters care for one run anyhow?

"In the fourth inning the Missoulians took another run. Changnon's hit passed between Duddy's legs at an estimated speed of 150 miles an hour. Roberts fanned. Bush poked a Texas leaguer over second base. The rest of the innings were simply pretty baseball, with Bush and Jacks fighting it out."

Bush's record for the game: A. B. 4; R. 0; H. 1; P. O. 9; A. 5; E. 0. Bush struck out 6 and gave 2 bases on balls. He made one wild pitch. Time of game 1 hour, 50 minutes.

BARROWS NEWS

Construction of Town Hall to Commence—Barrows Social Club Dance May 11th

W. H. Lee has a large crew at work drilling for the Gold Iron Mining Co. of Superior, in the forty south of the M. A. Hanna Co. mine at Barrows.

The Quackenbush Mercantile Co., of Barrows, has sold five lots to outside people who will soon erect buildings in Barrows.

Andrew Ring has bought a lot in Barrows and will soon commence building his own house.

Bids will soon be opened for the construction of a town hall.

The Barrows Mine Social club will give another of its popular dances on Saturday evening, May 11.

P. Alfred Quackenbush and his father, John Quackenbush, were at Little Falls Saturday.

SIMPLE MIXTURE HELPS

BRAINERD PEOPLE

That simple remedies are best has again been proven. Johnson's Pharmacy reports that many Brainerd people are receiving QUICK benefit from simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler's-ka, the German appendicitis remedy. A SINGLE DOSE helps sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation INSTANTLY because this simple mixture antiseptizes the digestive organs and draws off the impurities.

PROCEEDS AGAINST INT. HARVESTER CO.

Special to Dispatch:

St. Paul, Minn., April 30—With the filing this morning of the government suit against the International Harvester Company in the federal district court here, the government began its long planned movement to smash the trust under the provision of the Sherman law. Twenty-five specially named defendants in the suit will be required to appear May 6. They will then have thirty days in which to enter pleas and demurrers.

A MODEL FARM

P. M. Zakariasen Farm of Southeast Brainerd Shown on Souvenir Postal Cards

The farm of former Alderman P. M. Zakariasen is shown on handsomely printed souvenir post cards. The farm is situated within the city limits in Southeast Brainerd and consists of an 80 acre tract, all cleared and cultivated and well fenced. This year Mr. Zakariasen will put in a large crop of corn, potatoes and vegetables.

The buildings on the farm are a six room dwelling, a cement block barn measuring 32 by 42 feet with a hip roof, and near by are a carriage shed, summer kitchen and other small buildings. Many cows are kept and cream finds a ready sale at the Echo dairy in Brainerd. Full blooded white Leghorn chickens thrive well in the poultry yard.

The farm is about two and one-half miles southeast of the postoffice and lies a half a mile southeast of where Judge G. W. Holland has done much drilling in the exploration of his iron lands. For that matter the entire region around the farm has been thoroughly drilled. Mr. Zakariasen's land at one time was under option, but the parties did no drilling. Iron is believed to exist on it as it lies clearly within the mineral belt.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Miss Ethel Parker entertained a party of friends at "500" last evening at her home on Fourth street. Cards, singing and music were the diversions of the evening. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

The Bachelor Maids will give a dance Friday evening, May 3 at Elks hall. Special plans have been made to entertain the married people.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

French Vaudeville

"Alma, "Where Do You Live?" drew a fairly large house at the opera house and the comedy was a most amusing kind of French vaudeville. Miss Nannette Flack, as Alma, was of prepossessing appearance and her voice appealed to her audience. Chas. A. Murray, as Theobald, also immediately caught the popular fancy.

"Barriers Burned Away"

It is a peculiar coincidence that the first novel that was written by E. P. Roe should be the first one to be dramatized, yet such is the case, for "Barriers Burned Away" which blazed the way to fame for this novelist has been made into a play by the dramatist George Middleton. This play is said to be the best that Mr. Middleton has written, and will undoubtedly bring him as much renown as the novel did its author.

The story deals with the adventures of a poor but brilliant young man and his efforts to win the love of a rich and haughty young woman. The scenes are laid and enacted in Chicago just prior to and after the great fire. The novel has proven to be one of the most interesting and widely read during the last decade. The play is said to be just as entertaining to those who have never read Mr. Roe's book as it is to those who have.

"Barriers Burned Away" will be the offering at the Brainerd opera house Sunday, May 5th.

TAXATION IN MINNESOTA

THE FOLLOWING IS ONE OF A SERIES OF ARTICLES PUBLISHED BY REQUEST OF THE MINNESOTA TAX COMMISSION. CRITICISM OR SUGGESTION IS CORDIALLY INVITED.

Taxation of Money and Credits
In 1911, as explained in the preceding article, a somewhat radical change was made in the method of listing and assessing money and credits in this state. For more than 50 years Minnesota had been trying to reach such property for purposes of taxation with the same machinery and in the same manner as we taxed tangible personal property. Our experience was not materially different from that of other states and counties that had followed the same methods—at no time did we ever get more than a fraction of such property on the tax rolls.

Two causes have largely contributed to our failure to reach this class of property for purposes of taxation—the intangible nature of the property and the high rate of taxation that prevailed in most of the taxing districts of the state.

Such property, known as intangible personal property, can be easily concealed, because, unlike live stock, or manufactured goods, or the goods and wares of a merchant, it is not susceptible to the touch or eye of taxing officials and cannot be appraised with the same degree of accuracy as tangible personal property. For this reason we are compelled to rely largely on the declaration of the owner as to the value of his property of this character.

Experience in this and every other state has demonstrated that when a tax rate consumes more than 10 per cent of the income from this class of property it will not be voluntarily listed for taxation. The tax rates vary in different taxing districts of this state from about one and one-half per cent to more than ten per cent, the average for the state this year being nearly three per cent. This means that in some districts the taxes on credits would amount to more than the entire income from such property, while the average rate in the state would consume from 40 to 60 per cent of such income. Under such conditions the natural tendency is to conceal such property from taxing officials, and perhaps justifiably so, for no man should be expected to contribute more than half of his income for support of government.

Realizing the difficulty of reaching this class of property for purposes of taxation under the prevailing system, the legislature, in 1911, passed a law imposing a flat rate of three mills on the dollar on such property. It was felt that a low uniform rate of taxation would result in placing a large amount of this class of property on the tax rolls and that heretofore entirely escaped taxation. It was contended that the average man desired to be honest and that a low rate would permit him to make a truthful return of property of this character that he might own without the fear of having most of its income confiscated for taxes.

The results the first year under the new law have fully justified these conclusions. The assessed value of this class of property returned for taxation in 1910, under the old law, amounted to less than fourteen million dollars, while in 1911 the amount listed for taxation under the new law exceeded one hundred and fifteen million dollars, an increase of nearly 850 per cent in one year. In 1910 the assessed value of this class of property represented only 4.2 per cent of the bank deposits of the state, while the assessment of 1911 amounts to 33.8 per cent of such deposits.

Notwithstanding the low rate the total tax derived from this class of property in 1911 was but slightly less than in 1910, 67 of the 86 counties of the state showing an actual increase, while 52 of the 64 cities and villages of the state having a population of 2000 and over made substantial gains in revenue over 1910. Not only is the increase a very gratifying one, but the returns show conclusively that the tax is much more equitably distributed among the people than it was under the old law.

It is confidently expected that the assessment this year will show a considerable increase over last year. The purpose of the law is now better understood by both the people and the taxing officials than it was a year ago. The tax imposed under the law is not burdensome; it has been sustained by the supreme court, and is now an established part of the taxing system of the state. It is entitled to a fair trial, and if the ultimate results, after it has had a fair trial are not satisfactory it can be repealed.

Some criticism of the law is heard because it does not permit of the deduction of debts from credits. It should be remembered, however, that a person who owes a debt on his farm or his home, or on his farm implements or household goods or merchandise is not permitted to deduct such debt from the assessed value of the property. There is perhaps as much justification on the grounds of equity for deducting debts from these classes of property as from credits, but no such deductions have ever been permitted under the law. In the opinion holding that debts cannot be deducted from credits the supreme court says:

"Though this result leads to a departure of the long settled policy of the state to allow the deduction of debts in taxation of his kind, that policy was at its inception of doubtful merit, in that it extended to one class of taxpayers a favor not granted to others. It permitted the taxpayer holding credits to deduct his debts from the amount of his assessment, and denied the right to any owner of other property who was also in debt."

For more than 50 years Minnesota had been trying to reach such property for purposes of taxation with the same machinery and in the same manner as we taxed tangible personal property. Our experience was not materially different from that of other states and counties that had followed the same methods—at no time did we ever get more than a fraction of such property on the tax rolls.

Two causes have largely contributed to our failure to reach this class of property for purposes of taxation—the intangible nature of the property and the high rate of taxation that prevailed in most of the taxing districts of the state.

Such property, known as intangible personal property, can be easily concealed, because, unlike live stock or manufactured goods, or the goods and wares of a merchant, it is not susceptible to the touch or eye of taxing officials and cannot be appraised with the same degree of accuracy as tangible personal property. For this reason we are compelled to rely largely on the declaration of the owner as to the value of his property of this character.

Experience in this and every other state has demonstrated that when a tax rate consumes more than 10 per cent of the income from this class of property it will not be voluntarily listed for taxation. The tax rates vary in different taxing districts of this state from about one and one-half per cent to more than ten per cent, the average for the state this year being nearly three per cent. This means that in some districts the taxes on credits would amount to more than the entire income from such property, while the average rate in the state would consume from 40 to 60 per cent of such income. Under such conditions the natural tendency is to conceal such property from taxing officials, and perhaps justifiably so, for no man should be expected to contribute more than half of his income for support of government.

Realizing the difficulty of reaching this class of property for purposes of taxation under the prevailing system, the legislature, in 1911, passed a law imposing a flat rate of three mills on the dollar on such property. It was felt that a low uniform rate of taxation would result in placing a large amount of this class of property on the tax rolls and that heretofore entirely escaped taxation. It was contended that the average man desired to be honest and that a low rate would permit him to make a truthful return of property of this character that he might own without the fear of having most of its income confiscated for taxes.

The results the first year under the new law have fully justified these conclusions. The assessed value of this class of property returned for taxation in 1910, under the old law, amounted to less than fourteen million dollars, while in 1911 the amount listed for taxation under the new law exceeded one hundred and fifteen million dollars, an increase of nearly 850 per cent in one year. In 1910 the assessed value of this class of property represented only 4.2 per cent of the bank deposits of the state, while the assessment of 1911 amounts to 33.8 per cent of such deposits.

Notwithstanding the low rate the total tax derived from this class of property in 1911 was but slightly less than in 1910, 67 of the 86 counties of the state showing an actual increase, while 52 of the 64 cities and villages of the state having a population of 2000 and over made substantial gains in revenue over 1910. Not only is the increase a very gratifying one, but the returns show conclusively that the tax is much more equitably distributed among the people than it was under the old law.

It is confidently expected that the assessment this year will show a considerable increase over last year. The purpose of the law is now better understood by both the people and the taxing officials than it was a year ago. The tax imposed under the law is not burdensome; it has been sustained by the supreme court, and is now an established part of the taxing system of the state. It is entitled to a fair trial, and if the ultimate results, after it has had a fair trial are not satisfactory it can be repealed.

Some criticism of the law is heard because it does not permit of the deduction of debts from credits. It should be remembered, however, that a person who owes a debt on his farm or his home, or on his farm implements or household goods or merchandise is not permitted to deduct such debt from the assessed value of the property. There is perhaps as much justification on the grounds of equity for deducting debts from these classes of property as from credits, but no such deductions have ever been permitted under the law. In the opinion holding that debts cannot be deducted from credits the supreme court says:

"Though this result leads to a departure of the long settled policy of the state to allow the deduction of debts in taxation of his kind, that policy was at its inception of doubtful merit, in that it extended to one class of taxpayers a favor not granted to others. It permitted the taxpayer holding credits to deduct his debts from the amount of his assessment, and denied the right to any owner of other property who was also in debt."
